

TES Reopening Parent Forum

July 23, 2020

Instructional Options

- In-Person (5 days / week)
  - Guidance prioritizes early learners, students with disabilities, English-Language Learners, and other situations (e.g. students who cannot access the Internet reliably from home)
  - Goal is to provide this option to as many learners as possible
- All-Remote (5 days / week)
  - Available to any student/family
  - Equity and Access
- Hybrid

will be utilized only if unable to accommodate all students who would prefer in-person instruction, due to staffing and/or social distancing constraints

  - Would begin with 6th grade and then downward by grade level as needed

Instructional Options

- Regardless of instructional model, ALL students will receive instruction from certified teachers in all curricular areas, including special areas (Art, Music, PE, Library) aligned to New York State Learning Standards.
- Regardless of instructional model, ALL students will have daily access to their assigned teacher.
- Regardless of instructional model, ALL students with disabilities will receive special education services as listed on their IEP to the maximum extent possible while adhering to NYSED and NYSDOH guidelines.
- Regardless of instructional model, ALL students will have daily attendance and engagement recorded.
